SC 9 AGENCY AGREEMENT

This confirms that I, _____ (“Customer”)

have authorized _____,

who is qualified as an authorized Seller, to act as my Agent in performing the following functions for the account(s) listed below: (1) arrange gas transportation services from Con Edison; (2) nominate, schedule, and perform other gas control functions in connection with Con Edison’s gas transportation services; (3) execute all associated agreements, forms and other documents required to arrange for gas transportation services from Con Edison, (4) request information about my credit from Con Edison; (5) select among the various service options available to me; and/or (6) pay the pipeline for all applicable charges associated with the use of released capacity to serve my account(s);

all in accordance with the requirements prescribed by Con Edison’s Gas Tariff and Statement of Operating Procedures (as amended from time to time).

Con Edison should consider the nominating, scheduling, and other gas control functions performed by Agent as those of Customer. Customer will indemnify Con Edison and hold it harmless from any liability (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) that Con Edison incurs as a result of Agent’s negligence or willful misconduct in its performance of agency functions on Customer’s behalf.
