

Update to Load Shapes for CAP and RECON Systems

Effective September 1, 2014, Con Edison updated the load shapes for energy reconciliation. Please see the attached load shape file which contains recent changes made to the stratification upper and lower boundaries for SC12 strata A and strata M.

No change has been made to the load shape selection criteria. Shape selection is based on Service Class (SC), Stratum Category, Day Type, and Temperature Reference.