

New Load Shapes for CAP and RECON Systems

Effective September 1, 2014, Con Edison will use new load shapes for energy reconciliation.

No change has been made to the load shape selection criteria. Shape selection is based on Service Class (SC), Stratum Category, Day Type, and Temperature Reference.

Please see the attached documents for more information.