

The map displays the distribution of COVID-19 cases in Flushing, NY. The cases are represented by green triangles, which are most concentrated in the central and western portions of the neighborhood, particularly around the area labeled 11355 and 11357. The map also shows major roads like I-190 and I-495, and surrounding areas like Astoria and Long Island City.