

SECTION XII

CARRIER CURRENT SYSTEMS

If a customer uses the building wiring for a carrier current system for communications or signaling purposes, the customer shall install suitable filter equipment or make other provisions approved by Con Edison to keep Con Edison's distribution facilities free from carrier currents produced by the building's equipment.