DON’T FALL FOR SCammers PRETENDING TO BE CON EDISON.

Don’t become a victim.
In one of the most common scams, a caller may:

- Pretend to be from Con Edison. (Your Caller ID may even display Con Edison’s name.)

- Threaten to turn off power or natural gas service to your home or business within an hour.

- Demand immediate payment – often by prepaid debit card.

Suspect a scammer? Here’s what to do:

1. Hang up.
2. Call the police or 1-800-75-CONED (26633).

And remember, if someone knocks on your door saying they are from Con Edison, call us for verification.
