4. Terms and Payee Detail

Your project (Project) for the energy-saving measure(s) proposed under the Energy Exchange Program (Program) has undergone preliminary incentive review. The estimated incentive amounts are summarized below. The actual incentive amount may be different based on the actual measures installed, final Project costs, or other factors determined by Con Edison. By receiving this Preliminary Incentive Offer Letter (PIOL), it has been confirmed that your electric service has been deemed adequate, and/or the required service upgrades have been completed, based on the scope outlined and referenced by the MCID# on the Program application. Your execution of this PIOL indicates agreement to proceed with the proposed Project work, but you may not commence such work until this PIOL is returned signed to Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (Con Edison) and you have received a blank Completion Certificate (the combination of both constitutes a Notice to Proceed). The incentive is paid to the receiving party referenced below.

DISCLAIMER: Customer (Customer) eligible under the Program acknowledges and agrees that Con Edison shall not be liable to Customer or any other person or entity in connection with any qualifying Project undertaken by Customer, including in connection with Con Edison's review or approval of this PIOL and/or worksheets. Con Edison makes no representation or warranty, and undertakes no responsibility whatsoever, concerning the adequacy of any Project design or plan, any construction or installation work, the completion of any Project or the performance of any measure or equipment. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Customer, on behalf of itself and any other person or entity claiming by and through Customer, hereby irrevocably and unconditionally releases and forever discharges, and agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Con Edison, its affiliates, and their respective past, present and future officers, directors, trustees, stockholders, employees, agents, representatives, successors and assigns, from any and all claims, charges, complaints, causes of action, damages, losses, agreements and liabilities of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether known or unknown and whether at law or in equity, arising from the design, installation or performance of any energy efficiency measure or equipment purchased or installed in connection with the Program (including without limitation, claims for personal injury, death or property damage) or related to energy costs incurred by Customer including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, court costs and costs of experts.

7. Customer and Participating Contractor Agreement and Signatures

This PIOL and the associated incentive reflected above must be accepted by signature within thirty (30) days of the Project Authorization Date noted above. If the preliminary incentive offer is not accepted within thirty (30) days, then the Project application may be discontinued and a new application to the Program may be required consistent with the Program rules then in effect. Customer or Participating Contractor agrees to notify Con Edison immediately of any change (including, without limitation, changes in scope or change orders issued to contractors or installers) that has the potential to materially affect the installation costs, completion timelines, or that may lead to a decision to abandon the Project. Program details (including, without limitation, incentive levels, and availability) are subject to change.
